School Mission and Goals

Our Mission Statement:

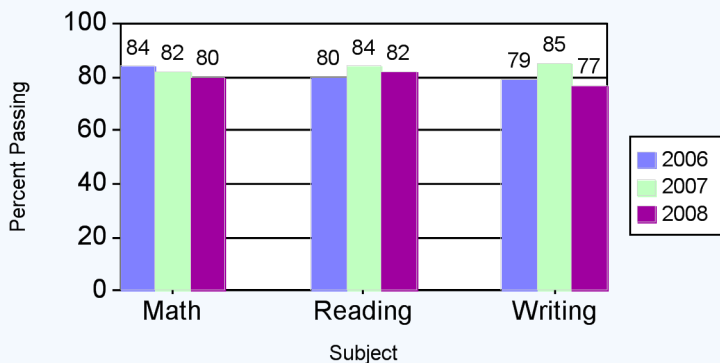

Anna Henry Elementary School will nurture the intellectual, physical, social, emotional, and aesthetic needs of children by using developmentally appropriate practices, while providing a secure and culturally sensitive environment.

For the 2008-2009 school year, we are focusing on rebuilding community on site, re-establishing trust with our families, neighborhoods and Site Council. Our academic goals include growth in Reading, Writing and Science achievement.

On Campus Incidents 0

Thus far we have reported two incidents to TPD per the new state-mandated reporting laws, although before this change took effect, these situations would have been completely handled at school. At Henry we have a comprehensive school program called Positive Behavior Supports, including identification of the school rules (the Four Bees) and recognition of positive student behaviors. Every teacher has a classroom discipline plan and we follow the TUSD Student Rights and Responsibilities handbook a
